

How to remember ReSource in your Will renewal for mission in the power of the Holy Spirit

ReSource is an independent Christian charity with an Anglican distinctive. Our vision is to help build a church which is diverse, local, renewed in the Spirit and effective in mission. We operate locally, regionally and nationally, across traditions and denominations, working to increase confidence and support growth. We also support the church in Africa, where our discipleship programme Rooted in Jesus is in use across the continent.

If you would like to leave a legacy to enable ReSource to help bring new life to individuals and churches in the UK and beyond, there are four simple things you need to do:

- Choose a good Solicitor to help you write or change your Will
- Decide which of the following three types of legacy you wish to leave to ReSource, and use the right phrase for your Will
- Give the phrase you have chosen to your Solicitor
- Let us know you have included ReSource in your Will

Types of legacy

1. Residuary Legacy (leaving the remainder or a share of your estate to ReSource, after all other provisions have been made:

"I give free of inheritance tax and all other fiscal impositions all (or a share of) the residue of my estate absolutely to ReSource for Anglican Renewal Ministries, Registered Charity No. 327035 for its general purposes and I direct that the receipt of the Director or other duly authorised officer shall be sufficient to discharge my executors".

2. Pecuniary Legacy (leaving a fixed amount to ReSource)

"I give ReSource for Anglican Renewal Ministries, Registered Charity No. 327035 the sum of £ (in figures) for its general purposes and I direct that the receipt of the Director or other duly authorised officer shall be sufficient to discharge my executors".

£ (in words)

3. Specific Legacy (leaving a specific item to ReSource)

"I give, free of inheritance tax and all other fiscal impositions to ReSource for Anglican Renewal Ministries, Registered Charity No. 327035, my (description of property) absolutely for the general purposes of such Charity and I direct that the receipt(s) of the Director or other duly authorised officer shall be sufficient to discharge my executors".
